This unit of work on the Commonwealth Games looks at sports, India and different cultures. Questions and activities are designed to allow children to reflect and compare Australian culture and sport with that of other countries in the world. The unit provides teachers and children with many opportunities to use their imagination, develop creativity and actively analyse and organise data.